HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Happy New Year to all of you! 2012, it's hard to believe that we're in a new year. We hope you all have safely made it into the new year with little or no effort. November and December, 2012 were jammed packed with activities! Dances, parties, dinners, auctions, Santa Breakfast, Food Drives, Poker, Tommy Moose presentation, Tom and Jerry party and much, much more have kept the Lodge and Chapter busy.

The WOTM Thanksgiving Auction brought in $800 for the Tax Fund. The Santa Breakfast served 41 adults and approximately 25 kids. A big "Thank You" to all who helped wrap presents, take pictures, helped distribute gifts, fixed breakfast and helped clean-up.

All of our bands continue to bring in the best talent and crowds. The Lodge is keeping all of those dancing feet happy, no matter what kind of music they enjoy.

On December 8, the Lodge and the Chapter presented the Asotin County, Clarkston, and Lewiston Fire department representatives with Tommy Moose. Tommy Moose are given by first responders at fires, medical transports, or other trauma related incidents to children to calm their fears. This is a Moose International Program which is great for the community.

HELP!!!

Has anyone seen our giant Moose we use to decorate with in the Lodge. The Moose has been kidnapped and if anyone knows where he has gone please bring him back to us, he is missed. The moose disappeared around the 13th of December.

LETTER FROM THE GOVERNOR:

Moose Races are back - Tony, Mona and Russ are running the races every Saturday night.

Business is looking better, however we are a long ways from getting healthy. Activities are listed on the calendar, so please help us by coming out to the Lodge.

Scott Druly is going to cook his famous Brats, the day of football playoffs on January 5.

PER CAPITA WINNERS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

- $500 – Boyd Byers
- $200 – Dick McKinley
- $100 – Tristen Storey
- $50 – D. Lynch

VOLUNTEER HOURS

Thank you to all volunteers who donate countless hours to the community. Several members, Gertrude Stone, donated 44 hours in November, and George and Ellen Dekan have put in 258 hours for St. Vincent De Paul Thrift Store and Social Services. Wow! Part of being a fraternal member of an organization such as the Moose is to reach out to serve in your community wherever the need may exist. Keep putting your hours on the sheets at the front desk in the lobby.

SPONSOR A DINNER

If you would like to sponsor a dinner, by buying the meat to be served and having someone else prepare and serve it, please give Rose a call 1-208-553-4467. This is a win, win situation for all. A great meal is provided and the Moose doesn't pay as much for product that is needed for each meal.
